INDEX

Abelard, educational ideal, 8.
Athletic contests, ethical meaning, 93.
Auditing committee, 130; report, 133.

Bacon, Roger, protests against current educational methods, 9.
Bevier, Louis, jr, on free election, 47-48.
Brosnahan, Rev. Timothy, on a liberal education, 22-27.
Butler, Nicholas Murray, quoted, 36; Report on College entrance examination board, 95-100; resolution on invitation to New England association of colleges and preparatory schools, 130.

Colgate, James C., on freedom of speech in connection with education, 67-74.
College bred man, indications, 20, 44.
College entrance examination board, report of, 95-100; change of name, 100; appointment of representatives from secondary schools, 130.
Colleges, changes during past generation, 10-14; attitude of universities toward, 43.
Columbia university, university course, 13.
Constitution of association, 144-46.
Cornell university, elective system, 12.

Davidson, Charles, on examinations in English, 116-21.
Day, James R., address of welcome, 5-6.
Delegates registered 1901, 140-42.
Donors, rights of, papers and discussion, 49-86.

Education, Elective system and a liberal education historically considered, 8-48; aim of, 28.
Elective system and a liberal education historically considered, 8-48
English, How should the entrance examination paper in English be constructed, paper and discussion, 100-29.
Entrance examination board, see College entrance examination board.
Ethical element in education, by A. V. V. Raymond, 86-95.

Faunce, W. H. P., on freedom of speech in connection with education, 74-78.
Freedom of speech in connection with education, 49-86.

Goodrich, A. L., on elective system in secondary schools, 27-36.
Gray, Elisha, quoted, 44.
Greek, reason for study of, 46.

Hale, Edward Everett, jr. How should the entrance examination paper in English be constructed, 100-12.
Hanus, Prof., quoted, 28.
Harvard university, changes during past generation, 11-12.
Higher education, revolutions in during the past 2000 years, 8.
History teachers, conference, 134-35.
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, quoted, 48.

John of Salisbury, protests against current educational methods, 9.
Johns Hopkins university, graduate instruction, 13, 47-48; elective system, 47.

Kieffer, John B., report as treasurer, 131-32.
Kipling, Rudyard, quoted, 63.

Latin, disappearance of as universal language of erudition, 15.

McKelway, St Clair, Freedom of speech in connection with education, 49-58.
Marcus Aurelius, quoted, 78.
Members, list of 1901-2, 135-39.

New England association of colleges and preparatory schools, invitation to appoint representatives on examination board, 130.
Newman, Cardinal, quoted, 25, 26.
Nominations, committee on, 130.

Officers for 1900-1, 143; for 1901-2, 133.
Original research, 19.

Parker, Alton B., on freedom of speech in relation to education, 78-86.
Pasteur, quoted, 63, 64.
Petrarch, quoted, 10.
Princeton university in 1850, 10.
Publications of association, 147-55.

Raymond, Andrew V. V., response to address of welcome, 6-7; The ethical element in education, 86-95.
Rhees, Rush, on elective system, 36-42.
Robinson, James H., The elective system and a liberal education historically considered, 8-21.

Saunders, Mrs Louise Sheffield Brownell, on examinations in English, 112-16.
Schurman, J. G., duty of the institution to maintain freedom of speech, 59-67.
Scientific discoveries of early centuries became teachable in 19th, 16.
Scientific habit of thought, 87-89.
Secondary schools, elective system in, 27-36; appointment of representatives on College entrance examination board, 130.
Sessions, summary of, 3-4.
Stryker, M. Woolsey, on elective system, 42-47.

Technical education, developments, 13.
Theologic study, Pres. Schurman on, 59-60; Pres. Faunce on, 74.
Treasurer's report, 131-32.

Universities, earliest, 8.
University, use of term, 38; attitude toward the college, 43.
University of Virginia, elective system, 12.

Van Dyke, Dr, quoted, 126.

Warner, Charles Dudley, quoted, 129.
White, Horatio S., paper read by, 59.
Wickes, William K., on examinations in English, 121-29.

Yale university, elective system, 13, 40, 41; graduate course, 13.